

ULURU & SURROUNDS

THREE DAY ITINERARY

See Australia's most iconic landmark from every angle - by foot, camel, double-decker bus, bicycle, on the back of a Harley or from the air. No matter which you choose, the view of Uluru will not disappoint, particularly at sunrise or sunset. With three days you can really experience all the serenity and majesty of Uluru, discover the beauty of Kata Tjuta and its magnificent panoramic views, and learn of the areas significance to the local Anangu people.

*Map is not to scale and is only to be used as a guide

TOP 10 MUST DO'S

1. Visit the Uluru Cultural Centre to learn all about the park, activities and Aboriginal culture
2. Enjoy the Mala Walk to the nearby waterhole at the base of Ayers Rock
3. Get your adrenaline pumping and view the outback landscape from above with a skydive or helicopter ride
4. Jump on the back of a Harley for a thrill around the base of Ayers Rock
5. Hop on a Camel and view the rock from a different perspective
6. Walk or cycle the entire 10.6km circuit and see Ayers Rock from every angle
7. Dine under the stars with Australian cuisine at the Sounds of Silence dinner
8. Take a stroll on the Walpa Gorge walk at Kata Tjuta
9. For a more adventurous challenge, take the Valley of the Winds walk
10. Enjoy a picnic by the sunset viewing area, and watch the ever changing colours of the Olgas as the sun goes down

For more must-do's around Uluru/Ayers Rock, visit northernterritory.com

ULURU & SURROUNDS

THREE DAY ITINERARY

DAY 1

The Uluru-Kata Tjuta Cultural Centre is a great place to start your exploration of the Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park. At the Centre you will find lots of information about activities in the park as well as an introduction to Anangu culture.

The Anangu people are Uluru's traditional custodians and have lived in the area for at least 22,000 years. At the Centre you can purchase Anangu art, watch craft demonstrations, or join a bush tucker session and guided walk.

There are many ways to see Uluru. Check out The Mala Walk, which is wheelchair-friendly, and takes you to the caves of the Mala people and to the sacred Kantju Gorge, a quiet waterhole at the base of a dramatic rock face. Only 90 minutes (return), along the way you will also see examples of Anangu rock art and learn about their creation beliefs.

The Anangu traditional landowners prefer that visitors don't climb Uluru because for them it's a sacred site. Instead, join a walking tour led by an Aboriginal guide.

If you're feeling particularly adventurous, take to the skies on an adrenaline-pumping skydive to see the incredible size and features of Australia's most famous natural landmark. Soak up the panoramic views and take plenty of photos on a helicopter flight, or jump on the back of a Harley Davidson motorcycle for an adventure ride with spectacular views.

Places to stay are all within the Ayers Rock Resort. Choose from self-contained apartments, hotels, a five-star luxury wilderness camp, backpacker rooms or a campground with sites and cabins. Try a new dining option every night, such as the open-air barbecue where you can buy and cook your own steak.

DAY 2

See the desert scenery atop a camel for a unique perspective. Climb aboard for a quiet, leisurely walk and view the surrounding area from six feet up.

Explore the large red sand dunes in the cool, clear morning and watch the sun rise over Uluru. Your guides will point out the desert flora and fauna along the trail and prepare a breakfast of billy tea and freshly baked beer bread.

ULURU & SURROUNDS

THREE DAY ITINERARY

Take a stroll or hire a bike near the Cultural Centre, and circumnavigate Uluru on the 10.6 kilometre base walk, which is dotted with interpretive displays. It is a great way to see the many springs, waterholes, rock art caves and ancient paintings at Uluru's base.

Make dinner memorable: the Sounds of Silence is a unique dining experience that starts on a sand dune with a glass of sparkling wine and canapés, and a 360-degree view of the sun setting over Uluru and the domes of Kata Tjuta. Enjoy your next course, a gourmet barbecue of barramundi, kangaroo, crocodile, bush salads and classic desserts, complemented by Australian wines and followed by an Aboriginal dance performance. Coffee and tea is served with an explanation of the night sky, guided by the resident 'star talker'.

DAY 3

Nearby is Kata Tjuta (the Olgas), meaning 'many heads' and is a series of enormous rock domes that date back 500 million years.

Start your morning early with a drive to the Kata Tjuta dune viewing area. Only a short walk from the carpark offers magnificent panoramic views of the domes and a relaxing place to sit and absorb the ever-changing colours of the landscape.

Continue on the road to Kata Tjuta and find out just how ancient and imposing the domes are by tackling one of the two popular walking tracks. The Walpa Gorge Walk is an easy walk which takes approximately an hour return and follows a stream to a grove of flourishing spearwood. The famed Valley of the Winds walk is a moderately difficult 7.4-kilometre circuit which weaves through the immense domes and treats you to spectacular views over the desert plains from its two lookout points.

Finish off the evening at the Sunset viewing area and observe the sun go down over the spectacular Central Australian landscape.

CONNECT WITH THE NT!

 Northern Territory - Australia's Outback

 @AusOutbackNT & #NTAustralia

 @AusOutbackNT & #NTAustralia

 AusOutback NT

 Northern Territory, Australia's Outback